About

Description

Steen is an experienced commercial lawyer in our Real Estate team.

He specializes in advising on property transactions, including the purchase and sale of properties, as well as project development, including bulk sales of residential projects. Steen also serves as a board member in companies primarily focused on real estate investment and development.

Steen has a pragmatic and results-oriented approach to his work, both in terms of specific projects and at a strategic level in his board roles. With his extensive experience and deep understanding of real estate, Steen provides tailored and efficient advice to clients.
