About

Description

Kasper is an attorney in our Litigation and Arbitration team. He advises both Danish and international clients.

Kasper is known for his strategic approach and ability to provide efficient advice. He works closely with his clients to understand their specific needs and to achieve the best possible outcome in disputes - and if a lawsuit can be avoided, he always explores this option.

As a trusted advisor, Kasper also assists his clients with a wide range of issues related to banking and finance law.

With a dynamic approach and broad legal insight, Kasper delivers tailor-made solutions and effective advice for the benefit of his clients.
